REQUIREMENTS FOR A MINOR IN COMMUNICATION

The School of Communication offers a minor in Communication on a space available basis only. The minor consists of twelve (12) semester hours in Communication courses selected from the following three (3) credit hour courses:

- ADV 3008  Principles of Advertising
- ADV 3352  Mass Media Law
- ADV 3410  Hispanic Marketing Communication
- COM 3332  New Communication Technology
- COM 3483  Reel Legal
- COM 3930  Special Topics in Communication
- IFS 3033  Media, Culture & the Environment (previously COM 3420)
- MMC 2000  Introduction to Mass Media
- PUR 3000  Introduction to Public Relations
- RTV 3001  Media Techniques
- SPC 3210  Contemporary Human Communication

Please note that only the courses listed above can be applied to the minor, the School will not make any substitutions. Additionally, courses taken to meet the minor are not applicable to any other degree requirement.

Only coursework with a grade of "C-" or above in these courses will count toward the minor. At least six (6) hours of the Communication minor must be taken with School of Communication at Florida State University. Credit earned in meeting the OCCR (Oral Communication Competency Requirement) may not be used to satisfy the minor.

You do not have to complete any paperwork to begin working on a Communication minor, and the School does not provide a certificate of completion. It is the responsibility of your major to verify that you have completed the minor. Any questions about the minor requirements should be directed to the College of Communication & Information Advising Center at (850)644-7278.
