

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

PLAN

EXECUTE

MANAGE

The Graduate Certificate in Project Management is a unique program that combines rigorous academic coursework and extensive real-world practical training.

Program Objectives

- To provide students with a working knowledge of project management principles
- To train students to master tools and methodologies necessary to successfully manage projects in any career field
- To prepare students for the Project Management Institute's PMP, CAPM, and PMI-ACP certifications

Program Structure

- 12 graduate credit hours to complete the certificate
- Two required core courses and two electives
- Online and in-person course format options
- Rolling admissions

“Earning this certificate led to my recent promotion and allowed me to be a founding employee of my company's Special Projects Division.

- Shayna H.

“This program impacted how I assess risk, balance time, minimize costs, and manage budgets.

- Ken H.

Who should apply?

- Students and professionals looking to strengthen their project management skillset
- People pursuing PMI certifications
- In-state and out-of-state students

Career Opportunities

This program prepares students for a variety of roles, including:

- Project Manager
- Program Manager
- Business Process Manager
- Technical Project Manager